

HONEY, CANDLES AND MUCH MORE

Christmas Market at the Bee Museum

The annual Christmas Market at the Bee Museum attracts hundreds of visitors each year. It takes place every second weekend in December. The cozy courtyards of the museum turn into a charming marketplace. Sweets of honey, chocolate, homemade cakes, grilled sausages delight the hungry guests. The duo Liedfaß, the Weimarer Liedertafel, the trombone choir of the church community of Schöndorf, the family orchestra and the saxophone ensemble of the Allegro music school provide a festive atmosphere.

Tinkering and painting for children

Young visitors can build gingerbreadhouses, decorate gingerbreads and cookies, make soaps and candles or test their craft skills. In addition a puppet player will perform Christmas fairy tales.
