

Traditional festivals also feature prominently. Weimar has hosted the Onion Market, the largest local fair in Thuringia, for more than 360 years. Warm welcomes can also be expected at the wine festival in the old quarter or the Christmas Market.

MARKETS & FESTIVALS

Easter Market

April 4th to 5th 2020

Spring awakening in Weimar! Marketeers, craftsmen and restaurateurs invite you to welcome the spring in Weimar!

Flower Market

May 17th 2020

"There's a lack of flowers in the area", wrote Goethe, a few weeks after Easter, flower-growers and horticulturalists meet up at the Flower Market!

Wine fest

August 27th-30th 2020

Wine fest is the focal point of Weimar's Goethe Birthday celebrations, visitors flocking to Frauenplan to raise their glasses and drink a toast.

Potter Market

September 5th-6th 2020

Potters from all over Thuringia gather on the market square to demonstrate their skills and sell their finished creations.

Onion Market

October 9th-11th 2020

With more than 330 000 visitors over three days, the Onion Market is Thuringia biggest and oldest local fair.

Christmas Market

November 24th 2020 to January 5th 2021

Garlands of lights start to glow, the fragrance of roasted almonds and stollen cake wafts through the streets, it's Christmas market time ...

---

Anzeigen