

THURINGIA BACH FESTIVAL

Impressive settings

The Thuringia Bach Festival is one of the leading baroque music festivals in Germany. Every year during Eastertide it encompasses around 50 concerts of works by Johann Sebastian Bach in the historic locations in which Bach lived and worked in Thuringia. Performances in places such as at the original baptismal font in Eisenach or in Bach's former work locations in Arnstadt, Muhlhausen and Weimar are unforgettable events for many music lovers who travel to the Thuringia Bach Festival from all over the world.
