

That is Weimar, and during the summer it has yet another dimension: an open city landscape surrounded by green areas, parks and a river. Moving, pulsing, full of life. In the little alleys, in front of the palace and mansions. Art and music everywhere, history, stage, film and boulevard. Always up close to contemporary life, authentic, intelligent, uncomplicated - a whole summer long. The Weimar Summer has become one of the most varied festivals in Thuringia - be a part of it and visit Weimar this summer.
