

What can you do during your stay in Weimar?

We have ten suggestions for you.

TOP TEN

1. Guided tour

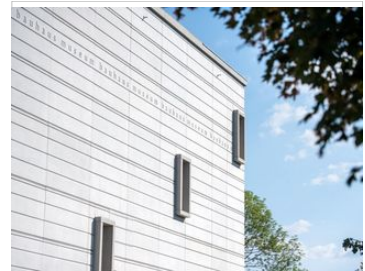

... start your Weimar journey with a guided tour. You will get a first informative and amusing impression of Weimar.

2. Goethe's Home

... and the Goethe National Museum on Frauenplan provide the most important evidence of the Weimar classics. Goethe spent 50 years of his life here.

3. The Bauhaus-Museum

... from April 2019 will display a selection of the collection of works by the Bauhaus that was founded in Weimar in 1919 and caused a worldwide furor in design and architecture.

4. The City Palace

... is a magnificent ducal residence and houses the former grand-ducal art collection dating from the Middle Ages until Modernity around 1900. Closed from July 2018.

5. Buchenwald memorial

... is an important venue to recall the crimes committed during the Nazi period. 500,000 visitors come here every year.

6. The Rokoko hall

... at the Herzogin Anna Amalia Bibliothek (historical library) that once again gleams in new splendour. There are one million volumes at the new and old library.

7. Opera, theatre or dance

8. Park on the River Ilm

9. + 10. Thuringian Bratwurst

... at the German National Theatre Weimar that Goethe founded more than 200 years ago as a court theatre.

... is a place for intellectual activity, relaxation and entertainment - both in the past and the present. Goethe sought the closeness to nature - and found it.

... is the tradition-minded choice among the normal selection of fast food. It tastes best with mustard.

Anzeigen